

2013 Wilderness & Environmental Medicine Peer Reviewers

The editors wish to express their sincere appreciation to the following individuals who faithfully and skillfully performed peer reviews for articles submitted to Wilderness & Environmental Medicine. WEM continues to have a growing impact on the scientific community. We want to acknowledge the importance of our peer reviewers to the process of ensuring the merit and quality of the manuscripts that we publish. Many of these peer reviewers reviewed multiple papers, some also serve on the Editorial Board and have Section Editor duties as well. Without them we could not produce this high quality medical journal.

If you are interested in becoming a peer reviewer in your area of expertise for Wilderness & Environmental Medicine in 2014, please send your CV to Editor-in-Chief Scott E. McIntosh (scott.mcintosh@hsc.utah.edu) and Managing Editor Jonna Barry (jonna@wms.org).
